It isn't the material that goes into your repaired watch that results in a perfect job, it is the know how that does the business. Any bungler can buy the fine kind of material that is used in repairing; but skill is the most valuable material that can be used in watch repairing; and the bungler can't buy it. I sell my skill for what it is worth and it will cost you less than bungling at lower prices.

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackman's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by J. G. Haerberle.

Dr. Talbot has had several hands employed the past few days raising and leveling the Custer block, which had become considerably warped, caused by the sills decaying. Barrett and Henry have charge of the work.

We learn that Mrs. Robert Lang, who moved with her husband to Howard, Colorado, some five years ago, died on the 24th of January. Mrs. Lang had many friends in this vicinity who sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.

There is a move on foot to organize a ladies' band in the city. We understand that several ladies have signified their willingness to become members. The REPUBLICAN favors the move, and anticipates that the undertaking will be a success.

Among the number of our citizens who are at Lincoln this week are: E. H. Young, Alpha Morgan and I. A. Reneau that went down the first of the week. J. A. Harris, D. M. Amsherry and others went down last night to wrestle with the normal problem.

The address of Evangelist Daly Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church, "to men only," drew a full house. A number of competent judges, who have heard a number of prominent men on similar occasions, state that they had never heard a better and more practical address, or one presented in so cultured a manner.

The Baptist Sunday school elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Supt., D. M. Amsherry; Asst. Supt., Mrs. L. A. Parmenter; Sec'y., Ray Armour; Treas., Katie Kelsey; librarian, Eva Cadwell; chorister, Florence Richards; organist, Mrs. Lizzie Cadwell.

Uncle Isaac Crable has been seriously ill for the past week. His sons, Frank and Jack, were notified of his condition and came down from the west Monday to see him. The tenth annual institute of the Douglas Grove Farmers' Club will be held at Wescott, Nebr., February 13th and 14th, 1901, the program of which we received too late for publication. As Mr. Butcher expects to be present Wednesday afternoon and take a picture of the club for the history of Custer county, it is requested that all old members try and be present.

The district court will convene here next Monday. The first case to be tried is the state against Wm. Oxley, who is charged with the murder of W. H. Fullhart last November on his ranch northwest of Anselmo. As the public is generally interested in this case, there is likely to be a large attendance during the trial, especially from the west and northwest part of the county.

I. A. Reneau is having the old Largey building remodeled for the reception of his abstract and real estate business. He has divided it into three apartments. The front room is for the reception of his customers and for general business. Just back of that he has a large sized private room, which will be occupied by his lady copyist. The back room will be used for his abstracting business, and it will also contain a fire proof vault. The rooms are conveniently arranged, and when completed, will make one of the best and most commodious business offices in the city. Mr. Reneau has employed H. Lomax, J. C. Moore and Miss Beard, who will be permanent fixtures in connection with his business.

M. B. A. Officers Elected.

The M. B. A. lodge of this city, at its regular meeting in January, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Rev. S. W. Richards; vice president, Mrs. J. B. Smith; secretary, D. M. Amsherry; conductor, Mrs. Helen Wells; treasurer, Mrs. D. M. Amsherry; chaplain, Mrs. S. P. Richardson; physicians, Drs. Clinton Day and C. Pickett; watch, L. A. Wells; sentry, R. T. Baker.

The order has between 90 and 100 members, and has been built up by a continued, rather than by a special growth at one time. When the lodge was organized here two years ago last May, there were only about twenty members. While it may not have the largest membership of any order in the city, it is second to none in substantiability. The officers are to be installed Saturday night, and several candidates are expected to be initiated. Oysters will be served after the exercises.

The claim of the other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimony of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help. until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by J. G. Haerberle.

Baptist Revival Meetings.

The evangelistic meetings in the Baptist church, which are conducted by Evangelist Daly, are very well attended. The preaching of the evangelist is not sectarian, but is a plain and practical presentation of the gospel of salvation, clean, honest and holy Christian living. Mr. Daly puts greater stress on right living than he does on any sectarian or theological theories. The meetings will continue indefinitely. Mr. Daly will preach each night at 7:30 except Saturday night. Next Sunday he will preach at 11 a. m.
